

CALL FOR ERAMUS + TRAINEES

Trainee for Painting Workshops (Glass and Ceramics) - Erasmus+ Internship

The Faculdade de Belas-Artes is looking for an Erasmus intern to support the Glass and Ceramic's workshops. The candidate should:

- have the ability to work on practical projects, which require physical effort to prepare and carry out;
- have availability to help students and support the functioning of classes;
- have knowledge of different techniques of glass fusing and making plaster casts or disposition to learn, along with ceramic's techniques;
- have a degree in Sculpture and/or Painting (or Fine Arts), preferably at an advanced level (end of BA degree or MA student);
- be a friendly person with good communication skills; and
- have a practical spirit and enjoy working with materials such as plaster, silica, cement, sand, various pigments, clay, kaolin and vitreous enamels, among others (the trainee must not be allergic to these materials, as they will be working with them permanently).

The trainee will be expected to carry out tasks in the workshops, namely accompany and assist Glass' and Ceramic's classes and support students in the workshop during the studio's working hours.

This internship is directed to students who are interested in an Erasmus+ traineeship, with their home university Erasmus+ funding. Weekly working hours will be about 20. The internship should have the duration from three to six months, from February to July.

Students may apply for both workshops or just one (Glass or Ceramics).

If you are interested in this traineeship, please send your CV and portfolio to erasmus@belasartes.ulisboa.pt.
