The lecturers of courses are university teachers (assistant professor, associate professor, full professor) with established scientific relevance for the course with suitable references.

A mentor and co-mentor for the preparation of doctoral dissertation can be a person with a university teacher title (assistant professor, associate professor, full professor) or researcher title (research associate, senior researcher or higher research associate) and has proof of research activity with a relevant scientific bibliography in the field of the doctoral dissertation topic. Co-mentoring must be substantively justified.

The minimal research activity of mentor and co-mentor is proved by 150 Z bibliographic points according to the SCOPUS database and by more than 0 points in the indicator of significant achievements A1/2, or by at least two important papers published in the last five years, as defined in the UL Habilitation criteria and the members' annexes to these criteria.

- The mentor and the co-mentor are confirmed in the process of registration and approval of the doctoral dissertation topic.

- The list of potential mentors is available here.

Lecturers for specific subjects can be found in the curriculum.
