Selecting external electives

Students have the possibility of achieving 10 credit points through electives offered by other programmes at the Department of Textiles, Graphic Arts and Design or by choosing courses at other faculties falling under the University of Ljubljana (for this, the student requires permission from his or her faculty).

Mobility

Students have the possibility of transferring 30 credit points (one study semester, regardless of the obligatory or elective units) from any programme in the field of textile or production technology offered by universities and other institutions of higher learning in the AUTEX network.
